Welcome to Baptcare Amberlea Community

Baptcare Amberlea Community is an established residential aged care community in the heart of Drouin. Amberlea services the Drouin and West Gippsland communities, providing residential and respite care in a beautiful rural environment.

What you can expect at Bapcare Amberlea Community

Amberlea is a warm and friendly aged care community. Friends and family are always welcome, and our experienced and attentive staff make sure you always receive the best of care and support, tailored to your needs.

We provide all levels of residential care (low to high), as well as respite care, specialist dementia care and end-of-life (palliative) care.

Over the years, Amberlea has established itself as an integral part of the local community. Our relationship with other community organisations allows our residents to maintain important connections to those in the surrounding area.

Our proximity to Drouin's town centre ensures our residents have access to everything they need. We organise regular bus outings to Gippsland's community attractions and festivals. We also have a longstanding relationship with the regional hospital, which is located close to Amberlea.

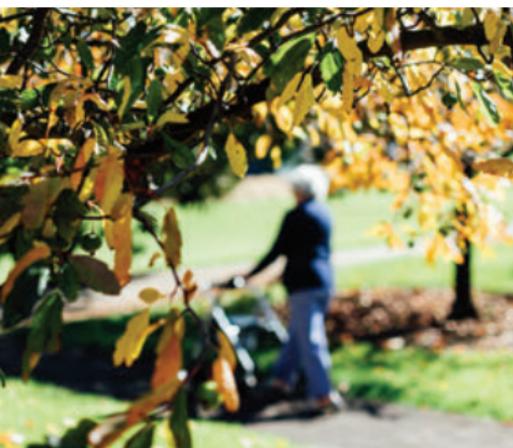

Our community is run by Bapcare, a not-for-profit organisation with more than 70 years of experience in caring for older people.
